October 17, 2013 eForce Compliance Honored by Wharton School of Business at Award Ceremony

eForce Compliance Honored by Wharton School of Business at Award Ceremony eForce Compliance is the proud recipient of The Philadelphia 100 Award presented by ParenteBeard LLC in recognition of its entrepreneurial growth and contributions to the business community in the Greater Philadelphia area over the last three years. The Philadelphia 100 is a merit-based program. Only companies that are among the fastest growing, privately-held companies are awarded the Philadelphia 100 designation. "This achievement would not be possible without the tremendous support we receive from the communities that we serve. Indeed, this honor strengthens our resolve to provide greater service and dedication to the residents and local businesses who have come to rely us," said Jay Segal, President of eForce Compliance.

The Award will be presented to eForce Compliance by The University of Pennsylvania Wharton School of Business on Wednesday, October 16, 2013, at the Philadelphia Gala Awards Ceremony.

eForce Compliance is the first dual-certified electronic recycler in the Delaware Valley. eForce provides a full staff of professional e-waste experts to handle and transport all material collected, and in the process creates sustainable green jobs.
